HAPPY NEW YEAR!

While 2017 was a great year for us at the Harbor, we are really looking forward to 2018! We're kicking off 2018 with a booth at the Seattle Boat Show + Indoors and Afloat at CenturyLink Field January 26th – February 3rd!

We hope you will come and see us in the East Hall, Booth #1901. Our booth will be staffed with Harbor personnel as well as some of our friends from the Harbor and the Freeland Chamber of Commerce. We'll do our best to answer questions about Harbor visits and also provide information on the great things to see and do while you are on Whidbey Island - whether you arrive by boat, car or float plane. While visiting our booth, be sure to enter to win a free night of moorage – we'll draw one winner each day! We'll also be able to take your individual or group reservation(s) on site and hope to talk about your past and/or future visits and hopefully hear your thoughts on our Harbor operations.

We'll have three of our ten newly installed Historic Picture Panels that tell the story of the Harbor area's interesting development since the 1800's. We hope you will visit the Harbor so that you may see all 10 Historic Panels, including the one in our Phil Simon Memorial Park which gives a brief biography of Mr. Phil Simon who was one of the early area settlers and quite an entrepreneur.

Living Voices: "The Right to Dream" @ WICA

Friday, January 12, 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Celebration

Living Voices combines dynamic solo performances with archival film and sound, turning history into a moving and personal journey. Seattle's award winning historical theatre troupe brings us the struggle and sacrifice for civil rights in America as witnessed in this compelling story. "The Right to Dream" recreates a student's coming of age as an African American in Mississippi during the 1950's and 1960's, and illuminates the issues of civil rights, leading audiences to understand how the fight against prejudice has shaped our history.

Adult $15 / 18 & under $10

MURDER MYSTERY WEEKEND

February 24-25, 2018

Bring your notepad, your sleuthing hat and your curiosity!

Without fail, every February someone commits a terrible crime in Langley and it's up to YOU to figure out "Who Dunit." It's Mystery Weekend and this annual event celebrates its 34th Anniversary February 24 – 25, 2018.

Sleuths of all ages are invited to participate in the longest running Mystery Weekend in the United States. If you're smart enough to figure out who committed this dastardly deed, you might even win yourself some prizes. Purchase tickets Saturday, February 24 from 10 am – 5 pm and Sunday, February 25 from 10 am - 4 pm at the Langley Chamber of Commerce office at 208 Anthes Avenue.

Langley is again asking for all the help it can get to solve this latest in a 34-year string of late February murders in the quiet seaside village. Spend one day or the whole weekend interviewing live suspects, viewing the scene of the crime, reading the sensational newspaper stories in the Langley Gazette, gathering clues, and trying to identify the murderer. Then make your way to the Langley Middle School Auditorium for the big reveal at 5 pm on Sunday, or if you have to leave early, look for the solution on the Chamber's website at www.visitlangley.com after 8 pm on Sunday, February 25, 2018.

The cost to participate is just $10, and includes a chance to guess who-dun-it along with your chance to win great prizes. We offer a discount to youth, seniors, and military personnel. Pick up tickets at the Langley Chamber of Commerce between 10 am and 5 pm on Saturday and 10 am and 3 pm on Sunday (your guess is due back to the Chamber by 4 pm on Sunday).
