A Word to the WISE (Winter Seafaring Enthusiasts) of Puget Sound

Shoulder Season enthusiasts have long visited the Harbor at Langley. It's a great little refuge not far from home and on the way "from here to there" for:

- Sailboat Races
- Boat Shows
- Rendezvous
- Organized Visits
- Spontaneous Visits

Often our shoulder season visiting guests and groups will treat themselves to a great boating adventure together with a little warm and inviting shore side luxury at one of our great (and readily available during the shoulder season) vacation rentals or inns.

The Sea Breeze Waterfront Vacation Rental is located right here at the Harbor. There's more than one regular Harbor visiting group that will take advantage of this conveniently located home with a spacious kitchen and living area to enhance their visits, as it provides a great common and comfortable central location for group activities. Often part of a group will come by land so that they may be included in the fun.

SOUTH WHIDBEY HARBOR OFFERS MONTHLY RATES FOR WINTER MOORAGE

The Pacific Northwest's Fall, Winter and Spring seasons are seasons less traveled on Puget Sound. We are more likely to encounter adverse boating conditions during these seasons, but when the weather is fair will you be ready to hit the water to participate in fishing, crabbing, whale watching and a day or overnight trip to one of your favorite nearby destinations?

Will you feel like driving miles and miles to check on the welfare of your boat or do that little project that you want to get done by your family's summer vacation? Will the tides allow you to dip in to make that quick fishing trip or crab pot pull?
