PORT OF SOUTH WHIDBEY VOLUNTEER RELEASE

The undersigned (“Volunteer”), desires to volunteer to provide assistance with maintaining various parks and/or facilities owned and operated by the Port of South Whidbey (“Port”) and, in consideration of Port permitting Volunteer to provide such services to its residents, Volunteer acknowledges and agrees as follows:

1. Volunteer Not Employee. Volunteer acknowledges that he/she is not an employee of Port and is volunteering for his or her own personal satisfaction and/or the benefit of other less fortunate persons.

2. Acknowledgement and Assumption of Risk. Volunteer acknowledges that there are risks inherent in connection with volunteer services, including risks inherent in the parks and facilities, risks inherent in performing volunteer activities, including risks of physical injury and/or death from a variety of potential causes and, nevertheless, Volunteer accepts and assumes the risk of injury and/or death associated with the volunteer activities, except to the extent of Port’s negligence if any (in the event of concurrent negligence of Port and any other persons, including without limit Volunteer, this Release shall apply to all but Port’s proportional share of the negligence).

3. Release of Claims. Volunteer hereby releases Port from and covenants not to sue or make claim against Port for any injuries or death arising out of or in connection with Volunteer’s volunteer activities and services, except to the extent of Port’s negligence if any (in the event of concurrent negligence of Port and any other persons, including without limit Volunteer, this Release shall apply to all but Port’s proportional share of the negligence).

4. Duration. This Release shall remain in full force and effect until such time as the undersigned Volunteer delivers written notice to Port, to the attention of the Port Executive Director at execdir@portofsouthwhidbey.com.
